This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE TO THE 1910 EDITION OF THE HYMNAL

In presenting the 1910 edition of the Hymnal, the Committee does not claim that all the hymns therein are strictly scientific, as the selection had to be made very largely from the writings of authors who were unacquainted with the teachings of Christian Science. Nevertheless, it is believed that it is representative of the best religious and poetic thought in hymnology, including a number of excellent compositions contributed by Christian Scientists. In the musical department an effort has been made to present a useful and varied collection of tunes, the purpose being to appeal to every lover of church music, of whatever taste or ability. The improvements introduced in the edition of 1898 (which was a comprehensive revision of the earlier one) have been retained, not the least of these being the printing of the words and syllables beneath the notes to which they are to be sung.

The present edition contains five hymns written by Mary Baker Eddy, and the hymns "I need Thee every hour," "I'm a pilgrim, and I'm a stranger," and "Eternity," which were originally included in the Hymnal in accordance with her wish. Also two of the tunes, which, in the earlier editions, had become very closely associated with her hymns "Shepherd, show me how to go" and "O'er waiting harpstrings of the mind," have been reinserted, at Mrs. Eddy's request.

The new book may be used in connection with former editions, as it is not so much a revision of the Hymnal, as it is an enlargement. A number of tunes that were rarely used have been replaced by others of exceptional merit, and some were removed because of complications in the copyright, but in most cases the hymns and tunes from 1 to 193 remain unchanged. A new tune has been composed for "Shepherd, show me how to go" by Mrs. Eddy, and thirty-six other hymns have been given additional settings, the new music having been selected, after careful consideration, from a list of several hundred tunes taken from the best English, German, and American sources. Ten new hymns have been set to the following tunes: "The Mother's Evening Prayer" by Mrs. Eddy to a tune called "Morecambe"; "The heavens declare the glory," "All power is given unto our Lord," "Our God is Love," and "O tender, loving Shepherd," all by Frederic W. Root to "St. Anselm" by Barnby, "Ein Feste Burg" by Martin Luther, "Varina" by George F. Root, and "Homeland" by Sir Arthur Sullivan, respectively; "He leadeth me" by J. H. Gilmore to "Aughton" by Bradbury; "We thank Thee, heavenly Father," from The Christian Science Journal, to a tune by Mendelssohn; "O God, our help in ages past" by Watts to "St. Anne" by Croft; "There's a wideness in God's mercy" by the Rev. F. W. Faber to "Carter" by E. S. Carter, and "Come, ye disconsolate" by Thomas Moore to "Consolator" by Samuel Webbe. A new arrangement of "Abide with me" by Bertha Woods, and a hymn by Mr. Root suggested by the words "Rock of Ages," have also been added.

Grateful acknowledgments are due to the following publishers and individuals, for the use of tunes copyrighted, published, composed, or arranged by them: In England—the Rev. W. Boyd, 207; the Rev. R. R. Chope, 230; The Congregational Union of England and Wales, 218; J. W. Elliott, 200; W. Garrett Horder, 64, 90; M. F. Brackett, many tunes; John Church Co., 193; Albert F. Conant, 118, 189, 196, 197; Oliver Ditson Co., 51, 115, 163, 171, 186; Fillmore Bros., 192; the Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, 53, 91, 93; Beekman F. Ilsley, 130; William L. Johnson, 161, 179; Mrs. Mary Runyon Lowry, 182; Charles H. Morse, 172; Frederic W. Root, 79, 88, 122, 143, 144, 191; Mrs. C. W. Rosan, 37; George C. Stebbins, 225; and the Century Company for over fifty tunes, arrangements, and harmonizations taken from their publications.

Permission to use hymns written, published, or controlled by them has been graciously given by the following-named firms and persons: the Rev. Mary Baker Eddy, 161, 178, 179, 186, 189, 195, 196, 197, 198; American Baptist Publication Society, 27, 56, 66, 75, 130, 212; A. S. Barnes & Co., 10, 26, 89, 141, 147, 167, 204; Biglow & Main Co., 208; Century Company, 102, 113, 116, 120, 143, 168, 181, 183, 225; John Church Co., 193; Miss Alice Dayton, 92; Rev. S. Baring-Gould, 157; Hodder and Stoughton, 76; H. O. Houghton, 3, 8, 17, 34, 49, 71, 77, 82, 83, 84, 85, 90, 172, 176, 201, 220; Mrs. Isabella Keyes, 28; Miss Laura C. Nourse, 121, 122; Frederic W. Root, 188, 191, 237, 238, 240; and the Universalist Publishing House, 7, 43, 94. Thanks are also due for similar courtesies to the firms of C. H. Richards, American Unitarian Association, Methodist Book Concern, Anson D. F. Randolph & Co., and J. & A. McMillan.

In ascertaining the ownership of tunes copyrighted in England, much assistance was rendered by the firm of Novello & Co., Ltd., of London; and valuable information has been obtained from the "Dictionary of Hymnology" by John Julian, D.D., and from the "Biographical Dictionary of Musicians" by Theodore Baker.

Words and music known to be copyrighted have not been used without the permission of the owners. If inadvertently any copyrighted material has been inserted without knowledge of the copyright, the publishers, trusting that they may be pardoned for the unwitting infringement, will gladly rectify the mistake in subsequent editions.

7 In Thee, Oh Spirit, True and Tender. 9s, 8s.

'. A. F., abr. Brackett.

1. In Thee, O Spir - it, true and ten - der, I find my Life as God's own child; With-in Thy Light of glo - rious splendor, I lose the earth-clouds, drear and wild.
2. With-in Thy Love is safe a - bid - ing, From ev - 'ry thought that giv - eth fear; With-in Thy Truth a per - fect chid - ing, Should I for - get that Thou art near.
3. In Thee, I have no pain or sor - row, No anx-ious thought, no load of care. Thou art the same to - day, to - mor - row; Thy Love and Truth are ev - 'ry - where.

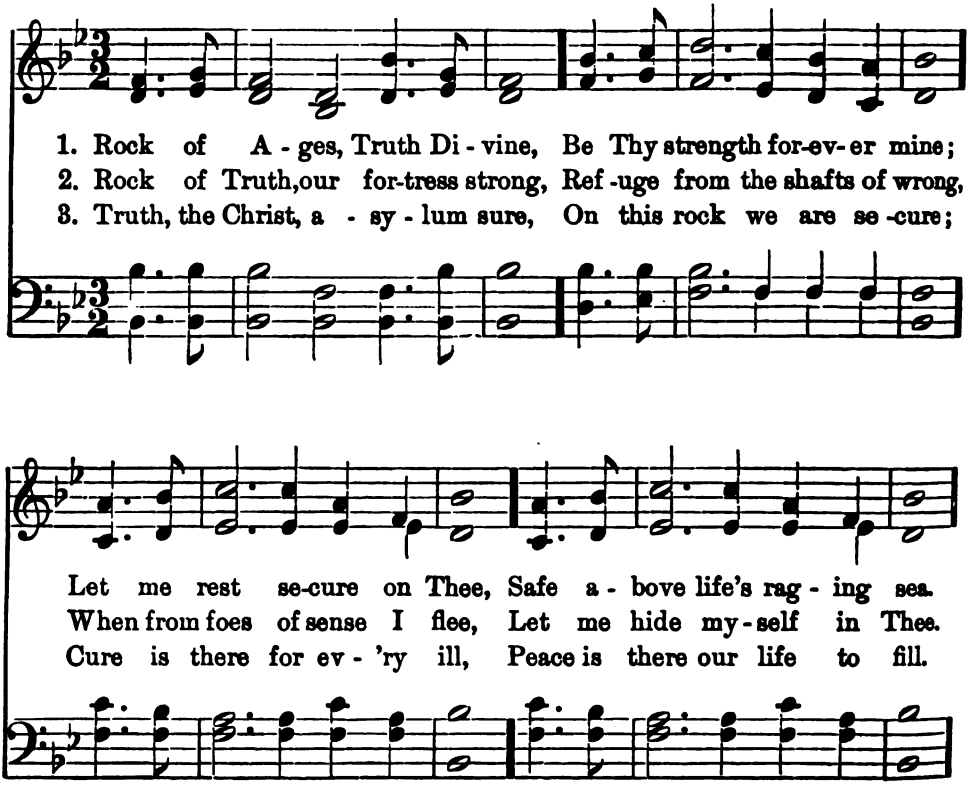
F. W. R. Words adapted from the popular hymn by Rev. A. M. Toplady.

Thomas Hastings.



1. Rock of A - ges, Truth Di - vine, Be Thy strength for-ev-er mine;
2. Rock of Truth, our for-tress strong, Ref-uge from the shafts of wrong,
3. Truth, the Christ, a - sy - lum sure, On this rock we are se-cure;
Let me rest se-cure on Thee, Safe a - bove life's rag - ing sea.
When from foes of sense I flee, Let me hide my-self in Thee.
Cure is there for ev - 'ry ill, Peace is there our life to fill.
Rock of A - ges, Truth Di - vine, Be Thy strength for-ev-er mine.
